Reading

This month we will be diving into some illustration studies, discussing how illustrations add meaning and mood to different books.

We will also be continuing to study different parts of speech.

As always, we are going to continue to practice writing about reading and writing reflections
Remember to complete 30 min of Lexia & Reading Plus at home !

Math

Multiplication Madness- study those facts!

Multiplication, factors, arrays, composite, and prime numbers are the stars of the show this month!

The students have also been working on a Math Mystery and learning each others math facts and products.
