

EARLY CHILDHOOD NEWSLETTER

WEEK OF OCTOBER 24, 2022

THEME: We finished working on our unit based on the story The Little Old Lady Who Was Not Afraid of Anything. We also finished working on our Halloween theme.

CONCEPTS INTRODUCED: We introduced the letter C last week and the letter D this week. We reviewed colors, shapes and numbers as well.

CLASSROOM ACTIVITIES: Last week, we sponge-painted cats for the letter C and completed the letter C page in our letter book. This week, we made ducks for the letter D and we made witches. We will also complete the letter D page in our letter book and we look forward to celebrating Halloween on Friday!

NEXT WEEK'S THEME: Next week, we will begin working on our unit based on the story From Head to Toe by Eric Carle. We will begin working on our Thanksgiving theme and introduce the letter E.

IMPORTANT MESSAGES: There are no Early Childhood classes on Monday, October 31 due to the District Early Dismissal Day.

HALLOWEEN HAPPENINGS: Early Childhood will celebrate Halloween on Friday, October 28 with a parade in front of school at 8:35, weather permitting. Students may dress in costume and may bring individually wrapped treats to distribute to their classmates. There are 5 students in the class.

SAVE THE DATE:

- Friday, October 28 - EC/Prek Halloween parade – 8:35 AM
- Monday, October 31 – No Early Childhood classes – District Early Dismissal Day
- Tuesday, November 8 – No School – Election Day
- Thursday, November 17 – Picture retakes
- Monday, November 21 – Remote learning day for EC students/Parent Teacher Conferences
- Tuesday, November 22 – No School/Parent Teacher Conferences
- Wednesday, November 23-Friday, November 25 – No School – Thanksgiving Break

