

EARLY CHILDHOOD NEWSLETTER

WEEK OF OCTOBER 31, 2022

THEME: We began working on our unit based on the story From Head to Toe by Eric Carle. We also began working on our Thanksgiving theme.

CONCEPTS INTRODUCED: We introduced the letter E this week. We reviewed colors and shape, as well as positional concepts and the concept of big and little. We also worked on fine motor skills.

CLASSROOM ACTIVITIES: We made November placemats this week. We will be making Elmer the colorful Elephant for the letter E and completing the letter E page in our letter book. We will also do some fun sensory motor activities with Mrs. Z!

NEXT WEEK'S THEME: Next week, we will continue our unit based on the story From Head to Toe. We will also continue our Thanksgiving theme and introduce the letter F.

IMPORTANT MESSAGES: There is no school on Tuesday, November 8.

WELCOME: We would like to welcome Mr. Nick Erdmann to our Early Childhood team! Mr. Nick will be joining us as a paraprofessional in our morning class. We are so excited to have him in our class!

REMOTE LEARNING DAY: Monday, November 22 will be a remote learning day for EC and Preschool students due to Parent/Teacher Conferences. Activities will be posted on Seesaw and can be accessed using the code that I sent home a few weeks ago (attached to red cardstock). If you have any trouble setting up Seesaw, please reach out and I'll help you to the best of my ability!
